Since the Historical Society does not have a photographic quality printer, the images will be delivered by email as attachments. If you need a printed copy, you will need to make a special request in the above image description sections. Any such requests will be reviewed by Society Staff to determine if a printed copy of the requested image will be feasible and of high enough quality to be delivered.

Terms of Use
(For Commercial Use Only)

- I understand that permission to copy a photograph or document is for a one-time use only. If I wish to use the image at other times, or for additional uses, I will have to submit a new Commercial Use Purchase Order, have it approved, and pay the appropriate fees.
- I do not have the right to transfer this image to anyone else.
- If the image is to be used on the internet, on either a personal or public web-site, images will be limited to 72 dpi.
- I understand that I will be requested to remove any images that are displayed in an inappropriate manner. I will not make the image publicly available for download.
- If the image is to be used in a publication, for exhibit, in a video, or on a website, credit will be given by indicating "Courtesy of the Historical Society of Washington County, Virginia". If the photographer is known, I will give him or her credit as well.
- If the image is to be used in a publication, for exhibit, in a video, or on a website, and the image is altered (cropped, tinted, detailed), the caption identifying the image will indicate these alterations.
- If the image is to be used in a publication, commercially or privately published, or video, I will give the Historical Society a complimentary copy of the work.
- I assume any responsibility for copyright and privacy issues.
- I understand that usage approval is required by the Library Committee of the Historical Society and the Donor (if available) before this request can be processed.

I understand and agree to the Terms of Use stated above.
